Bride to Bride Boutique (.com) is the site for wedding dresses consignment! With online consignment you are in charge of who you sell your dress to and how much money you ask for the selling price.

Wedding dresses consignment has become increasingly popular. It seems silly to buy such an expensive dress that you only wear once! Why not resell your gently used dress to another bride. She gets a deal and you get some money back! Even better, Bride to Bride Boutique (.com) does not charge a percentage of a final selling price like the majority of other wedding dresses consignment sites!!

In fact you may have other items to sell after your wedding aside from your dress: twenty vases, the aisle runner, chair covers. Why not sell them to a bride who can use them? This is exactly what Bride to Bride Boutique (.com) was designed for. Not only do we offer wedding dresses consignment but we also offer consignment on all of your other wedding items! There are so many wedding items that you spend money on which you won't ever use again - mirrors, vases, cake cutters, and more. Why not sell them to a bride who can use them?

And, if you are looking for a bargain for your upcoming wedding check out our site regularly and often as new items are listed by former brides all the time! After your wedding, post your own ads to sell your wedding dress, jewelry, centerpieces, etc.
